

2007 Lineage: Steven Kent Winery's Ultimate Bordeaux – Style Red Debuts to Rave Reviews...

95 POINTS

“This deep and wonderfully expressive wine hits all the Bordelaise bases as far its varietal mix goes, but it is all Californian in terms of its very generous fruit, and it ranks as the single best Livermore Valley wine in memory. It is fleshy in feel and beautifully balanced with a keen fit of tannin and acid, and its layered flavors are those of a very serious wine.”
- August 2011 issue

94 POINTS, CELLAR SELECTION

“A majority Cabernet (75%), with all the lush cassis and black cherry one would hope for, the wine shows nicely honed herbal notes from its 15% Cab Franc in the middle, with a little touch of spice on the finish coming from 5% Petit Verdot. Malbec and Merlot round out the blend.”
- June 2011 issue

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

91 POINTS

“This dense and Bordeaux-like expression weaves together a tight, complex mix of dried berry, currant, sage, herb and mineral, ending with a roasted coffee note. One of the best wines ever from Livermore Valley.”
- May 2011 issue